

Staff Member's Family from Anderson and Muncie

Washington, D.C. - U.S. Congressman Mike Pence voted today to name a room in the U.S. Capitol Visitor's Center after Gabe Zimmerman. Zimmerman was a staff member for Arizona Rep. Gabrielle Giffords, and he was killed while serving the people of Arizona's 8th Congressional District in Tucson last January. Zimmerman has relatives from Anderson and Muncie. Pence's statement follows:

"Gabe Zimmerman's family in eastern Indiana remains in my thoughts and prayers. True heroes are those ordinary people who perform extraordinary acts of sacrifice. Gabe Zimmerman sacrificed his life at the event he organized for the people of Arizona's 8th Congressional District and deserves to be honored and remembered not only by the people of Arizona but by a grateful nation. "

###